2. LEASE AND LEASE COMMENCEMENT

2.1. The Landlord demises the Leased Premises with the Equipment to the Tenant for the Term and the Tenant accepts the grant of the lease in the Leased Premises on the terms and conditions contained herein:

(a) together with the rights and privileges specified in Schedule 1 exercisable in common with the Landlord and all others entitled to do so;

(b) subject to the rights reserved to the Landlord and all other persons authorised by it specified in Schedule 1A (Reservations) hereto.

2.2. The Landlord agrees to make the Leased Premises available to the Tenant and give the Tenant access to the Leased Premises on the Lease Commencement Date.

3. TENANT'S COVENANTS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Tenant hereby covenants, represents and warrants with the Landlord as follows:

3.1. Rent

(i) The Tenant shall pay the Rent as mentioned in the Particulars as per the Payment Terms described in the Particulars.

(ii) Without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the Landlord under these presents or under Applicable Law, if the Tenant fails to make any payments to the Landlord of the Rent or any other sums whatsoever due to the Landlord under this Lease, the Tenant shall pay to Landlord interest on all overdue amounts calculated at the rate of twelve per cent (12%) per annum computed from the date on which the relevant amounts are due in accordance with this Lease until the date of their actual payment.

(iii) In the event that any payment is made by cheque and the cheque is not settled by the bank due to insufficient funds or for any other reason whatsoever, then the Tenant shall promptly provide replacement payments to the Landlord on first demand, in addition to paying the Landlord the applicable Administrative Fees stipulated in the Particulars, in the form of another cheque, cash, manager's cheque, or by other means of payment acceptable to the Landlord, at its sole discretion. The application of the Administrative Fees shall not prevent the Landlord from exercising its rights and remedies under the Applicable Law and/or this Lease, including without limitation the right to terminate the Lease.

3.2. Security Deposit

(i) The Tenant shall pay a non-interest-bearing Security Deposit to the Landlord as per the Payment Terms described in the Particulars as security for the performance of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Where the Tenant pays the Security Deposit by cheque it acknowledges that the Landlord is entitled to encash the cheque upon receipt and hold the funds in accordance with the remainder of this Clause 3.2.

(ii) The Tenant agrees that the Landlord holds the Security Deposit as security for the due performance and observance of the Tenant 's covenants and obligations contained in this Lease and for all Liabilities which the Landlord suffers or incurs and all other sums incurred by the Landlord as a result of or in any way arising from any breach or non-performance or non-observance of any of the Tenant 's covenants under this Lease.

(iii) If the Tenant fails to comply with the terms of this Lease, the Landlord may, at its discretion and acting reasonably, deduct from the Security Deposit such sums as it may deem necessary to compensate for any documented loss or damage suffered or to recover any amounts due to the Landlord arising because of the Tenant’s breach of any of its obligations under this Lease (including any costs incurred by the Landlord in remedying such breach provided such costs are supported by invoices). No deduction shall be made for fair wear and tear.

(iv) If the Landlord makes a deduction from the Security Deposit, it shall notify the Tenant in writing along with reason(s) thereof and provide supporting documentation, and the Tenant shall pay within five (5) days of the date of such written notice the Landlord such sum as shall be required to make up the Security Deposit to the original amount of the Security Deposit.

(v) The Landlord may hold the Security Deposit in such manner as the Landlord deems suitable.

(vi) The Landlord shall refund the Security Deposit to the Tenant, after having deducted an amount sufficient to compensate the Landlord for all Liabilities of the Tenant it has suffered or may suffer or incur, within thirty (30) calendar days the Lease Expiry Date or the Early Termination Date, as the case may be.

(vii) No interest will accrue or be payable on the Security Deposit.

3.3. Obtain and renew DED license

(i) The Tenant undertakes to obtain and maintain during the Term a DED license in respect of its business activities in accordance with the Permitted Use from the Leased Premises and to submit a valid copy of the said DED License to the Landlord upon issuance and/or subsequent renewals of such DED License by the Tenant, upon receipt of the such DED License by the Tenant.

(ii) The Tenant acknowledges that it is a condition to handover of the Leased Premises that the Tenant provides the Landlord with a copy of its valid DED License.

(iii) The Landlord may exercise its rights under clause 6.1(e) on the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) the Tenant fails to obtain a DED License; or

(b) the Tenant fails to provide the Landlord with a copy of the DED License within twenty-five (25) days of receiving the DED License.

(iv) On the occurrence of any of the events referred to in clause 3.3(iii), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, and in addition to its right to collect from the Tenant any unpaid Rent and Hold Over Rent and any other dues and damages that may be applicable, and without prejudice to any other action or remedy, the Landlord shall have the right, forthwith and without the need to institute any legal action, to (a) terminate this Lease on five (5) days prior written notice to the Tenant, (b) forfeit any and all deposits and other payments made by the Tenant hereunder; and (c) re-enter the Leased Premises and re-possess the same as its tenure.

(v) In addition to clause 3.5(iv) the Tenant will be liable on a full indemnity basis for any actual costs incurred by the Landlord in taking any legal proceedings to terminate this Lease in accordance with this clause in the event that the proceedings lead to a valid and enforceable termination. In the event of the Tenant failing to pay such costs following demand, the Landlord reserves the right to deduct the same from the Security Deposit, on written notice to the Tenant.

3.4. Title and Inspection of Leased Premises

Tenant has prior to the execution of the Lease, satisfied itself as to the title of the Landlord to the Leased Premises, its suitability for the Permitted Use by the Tenant, inspected the Leased Premises and satisfied itself as to the calculation and measurement of the area covered by the Leased Premises and the condition of the Leased Premises as set out in this Lease, more particularly in the Particulars and hereby agrees and confirms that it shall not raise any claim or dispute whatsoever against the Landlord in this regard.

3.5. Pay out-goings

The Parties agree that any amount referred to in this Lease is exclusive of the Value Added Tax ("VAT") imposed by the VAT Law, unless indicated otherwise. Tenant shall pay to Landlord any and all applicable VAT without delay, at such rate as may be applicable from time to time. Any adjustment to the paid VAT (if any) will be carried out in accordance with the VAT Law. Subject to the VAT Law, in the event any amount due to Landlord pursuant to this Lease is made in instalments or though deferred payments, Landlord shall issue a VAT invoice to the Tenant in respect of the due VAT upon the encashment by Landlord of the relevant instalment or the deferred payment (as applicable).

3.6. Use of the Leased Premises

The Tenant shall not use or permit the Leased Premises to be used or any part thereof or the Equipment for any purpose other than Permitted Use and not to use or permit the Leased Premises to be used whether temporarily or permanently as a place of residence or for sleeping or for any immoral or illegal purposes.

3.7. Not to make alterations

The Tenant shall not make or permit to make any alterations in or additions to the Leased Premises or Building or Equipment without obtaining the prior written approval of the Landlord and in particular not to make any alterations or additions to the Leased Premises that will interfere with or prevent the unrestricted use of running water, oil, gas, electrical energy, the flow of air and free passage of smoke and air-conditioning system, common areas near emergency exits and also, in the area of the Building adjoining the Leased Premises or the Community.

(a) The Tenant shall pay to the bank account of the Landlord the costs of the Additional Equipment (including, without limitation, any costs associated with installation thereof), as well as the costs of additional services and/or works associated with the use of the Premises, requested in writing by the Tenant, within Seven (7) Business Days from the date of the relevant Landlord's invoice and the Tenant's agreement with the invoiced amount. The Landlord shall not be obliged to proceed with acquisition of the Additional Equipment and/or provision of additional services and/or works until payment by the Tenant of the relevant Tenant's invoice. Payment by the Tenant of the Landlord's invoice shall be deemed an approval of the invoiced costs.

(b) For avoidance of doubt, the Additional Equipment as well as results of additional services and/or works specified in this paragraph above (or any portion thereof) shall vest in the Landlord at the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease without any compensation to the Tenant.

3.8. Compliance with Community Rules & Regulations

(i) The Tenant agrees and understands that the Landlord and Tenant are required to abide and comply with the Community Rules & Regulations relating to the management, functioning, and care of the Building, the Community and the conduct of the tenants/occupants therein, as stipulated in Schedule 2 hereto.

(ii) The Community Rules & Regulations may be varied, added to, deleted, or amended from time to time by the Community Manager/Master Developer or the Owner provided, that no such amendment, deletion or addition by the Owner shall be inconsistent with the rights of the Tenant as expressed in this Lease. Amendments and/or additions to the Community Rules & Regulations shall be made publicly available information or otherwise notified to the Tenant within reasonable time period to ensure the Tenant abide by such amended Community Rules & Regulations.

(iii) The Tenant shall abide and comply with Community Rules & Regulations throughout the Term and ensure that it does not do any act or omission which makes the Landlord unable to comply and abide by the Community Rules & Regulations.

(iv) The Tenant hereby indemnifies the Landlord for any and all claims, costs, damages etc. against the Landlord arising out of the aforesaid non-compliance / acts or omissions by the Tenant relating to the Community Rules & Regulations.

3.9. Not to assign or sublease

(i) The Tenant shall not assign, transfer, part with possession, sublease or grant any license whatsoever or otherwise deal with, or dispose of the Leased Premises or Equipment or any part thereof to any other party (hereinafter referred to as "Assignment"). For the purpose of this Lease, an Assignment shall, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, include any Change of Control. In particular, in situations where the owner named in the DED License is, in fact, not the actual owner of the business and the interest of the Tenant exists pursuant to a private arrangement with a third party, the prohibition against Assignment in this clause shall apply to the Tenant.

(ii) Where required, the Landlord may in its sole and absolute discretion consent to the Assignment of this Lease or the assignment or subletting of a part thereof or refuse to grant its consent,

3.10. Business name

The Tenant shall conduct its commercial business at the Leased Premises only as described in the Particulars and only under the Tenant Business Name specified therein.

3.11. Warehousing, Display and Signage

The Tenant shall not use Leased Premises as a warehouse or a store. Tenant shall store and/or stock its wares and merchandise in the Leased Premises in an improper manner without using the false ceiling or other unsuitable areas for storage; not to place or display any merchandise or advertising material of any nature whatsoever outside the Leased Premises or in any part of the Common Facilities without the prior written approval of the Landlord; and shall comply with all periodically communicated requirements of the Landlord regarding any and all of the Tenant's signage (whether exterior (if allowed) or interior) as to size, location lighting and otherwise. No exterior signages are permitted without Landlord's written approval being obtained in advance.

3.12. Parking of trade vehicles, loading docks

The Tenant shall not permit trade vehicles while being used for delivery and pick up of merchandise to or from the Leased Premises to be driven, parked, or stopped at any place or time except within the loading dock area designated for the service of the Leased Premises or at such other place or places and such time or times as the Landlord may specifically allow. The Tenant must prohibit its employees, suppliers and contractors from obstructing the entrances, exits or driveways in and to the parking areas, any adjacent areas, the Building, the Community or the Common Facilities.

3.13. Installation of additional air-conditioning

The Tenant shall not without the prior written consent of the Landlord install any additional air conditioning or cooling units or other methods of cooling.

3.14. Notice of defects

The Tenant shall give the Landlord prompt notice in writing of defects or of repair in any services, or fittings in the Leased Premises and of any circumstances likely to cause any danger, risk or hazard to the Leased Premises or any person therein.

3.15. Compliance with statutes and Applicable Law

Tenant shall comply with all Applicable Laws affecting the use of the Leased Premises or the Equipment and to keep the Landlord indemnified in respect of all such matters stipulated therein.

3.16. Removal of signs and names

Upon vacating the Leased Premises pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease, or immediately prior thereto, or (other than those permitted in accordance with this Lease) at any time upon the written request of the Landlord, to remove any signs, names, advertisements or notices erected upon or affixed to, within or outside the Leased Premises or the exterior walls of the Building or the Community and to make good any damage or disfigurement caused by reason of such erection, affixing and/or removal thereof.

3.17. Not to bring in machinery, plant or equipment

Not to bring upon the leased Premises any machinery, plant or equipment other than servers and/or equipment related to information technology or office equipment, without the prior written consent of the Landlord and, if such consent is obtained, not to cause any structural or other damage to the floor or walls or any part of the Building or the Community. Prior to bringing any such machinery, plant or equipment to the Leased Premises or the Building or the Community, to inform the Landlord of its intention to do so and comply with the Landlord's direction as to the routing, installation and location thereof.

3.18. Permit entry for inspection, repairs and alterations

The Tenant shall permit Owner and/or the Landlord, his agents, engineers, contractors and employees at all times at all times on prior reasonable notice (except in the case of emergencies - when such notice is sent as soon as practicable) to enter the Leased Premises and carry out inspection, repairs, renovations, measurement or valuation of the Leased Premises, take inventories of premises, maintenance or alterations to the Leased Premises or to any part thereof under the provisions of this Lease, or otherwise deemed necessary or desirable in the Owner's and/or the Landlord's sole discretion, provided that the Landlord shall endeavour (to the extent reasonably practicable) to limit the impact of the works on the Tenant's operations. For avoidance of doubt, the Landlord (its contractors) may enter the Leased Premises without notice in order to render the Services.

3.19. Indemnify and to Insure along with third party Insurance

(i) The Tenant shall be wholly responsible for, and shall indemnify the Landlord against, any loss, damage, loss of life or bodily or personal injury caused to any person whomsoever or any property whatsoever, directly resulting from the defective or damaged condition of any part of the Equipment and/or the Leased Premises, or any fittings, fixtures or wiring therein, for the repair of which the Tenant is responsible or caused in any way by the spread of fire or smoke, or the flow of water from the Leased Premises or any part thereof; or through any negligent act, default of the Tenant, its servants, agents, licensees, visitors or customers. The Tenant shall effect and maintain during the Lease Period adequate insurance cover in respect of such risks, to the complete satisfaction of the Landlord as more specifically detailed under clause 3.19(ii) below. Such a policy should include a condition prohibiting subrogation to the Landlord (with the exception of the Landlord's intentional unlawful acts). Such insurance shall be provided by a public liability insurance issued in the joint names of the Landlord and the Tenant with an indemnity of not less than AED 3,000,000/- in any accident or series of accidents arising from any one occurrence. Such insurance shall include a standard cross-liability clause, to the effect that the insurance coverage and its terms and conditions shall not be cancelled, modified or restricted without the prior written consent of the Landlord. The Tenant shall regularly pay premiums and submit a certificate from the insurance company to the Landlord confirming that all due premiums have been paid in full and the policy is valid and subsisting in all respects. A copy of the said public liability insurance or suitable proof of purchase and current validity of the insurance cover should be always made available to the Landlord.

(ii) Further, the Tenant shall insure all the property and effects brought by the Tenant into the Leased Premises against loss, theft or damage and the Landlord shall not in anyway whatsoever or at any time acquire any responsibility or liability for any loss, theft or damage to such property or effects howsoever occurred whether through negligence, fault or misconduct of any servant, agent, employee, customer or visitor of the Landlord or otherwise.

3.20. No Landlord's Liability

Under no circumstances, except for its gross negligence, shall the Landlord be liable to the Tenant for any special, indirect or consequential damages or losses including but not limited to, loss of profit, loss of use, loss of revenues or damages to business or reputation of the Tenant or of any third party caused by any act of omission/commission of any visitor, employee, licensee, consultant or independent contractor, or any third party whether appointed by the Landlord or not. Except for its gross negligence, the Landlord shall not be liable for any death, damage, injury or loss (whether to person or property or any assets) resulting from any event, including but not limited to fire, any short circuit of electrical wiring, explosion, falling plaster or slabs, escape/release of gas, fumes, water (whether arising from leakage or defect of the piping, wiring, and sprinkler system or otherwise) or other such occurrence or for any death, damage, injury or loss (whether to person or property) caused by any other person howsoever and wheresoever or for any diminution or obstruction of light, air or view by any buildings or structures that may be erected within or adjacent to the Building, or for any actions, claims, damages, destruction, injury litigation, loss theft, etc. as may arise for any cause whatsoever relating to any assets or property or person of the Tenant or any other person, arising out of or in connection with the Leased Premises. Except for its gross negligence, the Landlord shall not be responsible or liable for any theft, loss, damage, or destruction of any property of the Tenant, or to any persons, or for any bodily injury to any persons from any cause whatsoever, including, but not limited to, any loss, damage, harm, or injury, caused by fire, theft, rains, damp, leakage of water, white-ants, or stoppage, breakage or bursting of any pipes, appliances or machinery connected with or used in respect of the Leased Premises, or any part thereof.

3.21. Compliance with the MCR

The Tenant shall observe, abide and comply with the terms of the MCR and shall do or omit to do anything that would cause the Landlord to be in breach of them.

3.22. Indemnity

Except for damage, loss or injury caused by the Landlord's gross negligence, the Tenant shall indemnify the Landlord against:

(a) any damage to the Leased Premises, any adjoining property, the Building or the Community t;

(b) injury or death to any person, employee, servant agent, contractor, invitee, visitor, customer or licensee of the Landlord;

(c) any act, omission, fault or neglect of the Tenant or any person authorised by the Tenant;

(d) damage caused to persons or property caused by moving property in or out of the Leased Premises or Building or by the installation or removal of furniture or other property of Tenant;

(e) any failure of the Tenant to take out and maintain the relevant insurance as required under this Lease;

(f) the occupation or use by the Tenant of the Leased Premises or any portion of the Building; and

(g) any breach of covenants by the Tenant imposed under this Lease, whether directly or indirectly caused through the act, omission, fault or neglect of the Tenant or a person for whom the Tenant is responsible.

3.23. Yield up

Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, the Tenant shall, at its own cost, surrender and yield up to the Landlord the entire Leased Premises (normal wear and tear excepted); or (b) restored to its Hand Over Condition. The Tenant shall also, at its own cost, make good all damage caused to the Equipment and the Leased Premises, the exterior of the Building, or the Community, whether due to removal activities or otherwise, and shall return the Leased Premises and Equipment to the Landlord in its Hand Over Condition (as handed over to the Tenant) to the Landlord . In addition, the Tenant shall make adequate arrangements, to the satisfaction of the Landlord, for the discharge of all payments due under this Lease.

3.24. Survival of Obligation

All of Tenant's duties and obligations hereunder, including but not limited to Tenant's duties and obligations to pay any amounts due (upto the Lease Expiry Date or the Early Termination Date, as the case may be) under this Lease shall survive the expiration or the earlier termination of this Lease.

3.25. Holding Over

Should the Tenant or anyone claiming under these presents illegally remain in possession of the Leased Premises after the expiry or earlier termination of this Lease, the Tenant hereby undertakes to pay the Landlord, unconditionally and without any demur or objection, in addition to the Rent and the Hold Over Rent for every day that the Tenant continues in such possession. No such payment or acceptance thereof by Landlord shall however operate as or constitute and/or be deemed to be an extension or renewal of the Term granted, permitted or promised by the Landlord, Notwithstanding the above, the Tenant shall nevertheless be bound and abide by all the applicable terms and conditions of this Lease. In addition to the above payment, Landlord reserves the right to seek damages from Tenant for loss caused by the Tenant's continued possession and to seek eviction of Tenant from the Leased Premises.

3.26. Right to use Trademarks

The Tenant represents and warrants that it is licensed to use all names, logos, label names or other distinguishing marks or letters (hereinafter referred to as "Marks") actually used in connection with the Tenant's business at the Leased Premises and undertakes to keep the Landlord indemnified against any and all consequential disputes arising out of, from or as a result of the Tenant's unauthorized use of any Marks. The Tenant shall not have any right to use the Marks belonging to the Landlord or the Building in any manner.

3.27. Representations and Warranties

The Tenant represents and warrants to the Landlord that:

(a) it is duly incorporated under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated;

(b) it has the power to enter into and to exercise its rights and to perform its obligations under this Lease;

(c) it has taken all necessary action to authorise the execution of and the performance of its obligations under this Lease;

(d) the obligations expressed to be assumed by it under this Lease are legal, valid, binding and enforceable;

(e) neither execution nor performance of this Lease will contravene any provision of:

  (i) any existing law or regulation;

  (ii) its memorandum or articles of association; or

(iii) any obligation (contractual or otherwise) which is binding upon it, or upon any of its assets;

(f) all applicable Consents, licences, approvals or authorisations of, exemptions by or registrations with or declarations by, any governmental or other authority required by it with respect to this Lease and the performance of its obligations under this Lease have been obtained or will be obtained or made, will be valid and subsisting and will not be contravened by the execution or performance of this Lease, as required pursuant to the Applicable Laws and/or pursuant to this Lease;

(g) it shall comply with VAT Law in timely manner in accordance with the Applicable Laws.

3.28. Special Condition

(h) During the Term and the Extended Term (if applicable), the Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease early for convenience by providing at least 3 (three) months' prior written notice, subject to prior payment of all the Rent till the termination date plus Rent for 2 (Two) months as a penalty for the early termination of the Lease Agreement and any other amounts outstanding under this Lease. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Tenant cannot serve a termination notice pursuant to which the termination date of this Lease will occur in, May, June, July and August.

4. LANDLORD COVENANTS

The Landlord hereby covenants with the Tenant as follows:

4.1. Quiet Enjoyment

Upon the Tenant duly paying the Rent and any other sums payable hereunder to the Landlord and observing and performing its covenants and stipulations herein contained and subject to any directive or decision of any Relevant Authority, to permit the Tenant to have quiet possession and enjoyment of the Leased Premises during the Term without any interruption from the Landlord.

4.2. Maintain & Repair

(i) The Landlord shall procure that the Owner shall maintain and keep in substantial repair the Building, its structural aspects, air-conditioning plant and other equipment of the Building, which serves the Leased Premises (other than the ducts, grilles, diffusers, Fan Coil Units and other items installed by the Tenant, if any, which shall be required to be maintained and repaired by the Tenant).

(ii) The Landlord shall procure that the Owner shall maintain and repair the Service Media in the Common Facilities. The Landlord shall provide facilities like air-conditioning, lifts, lighting, and cleaning services during the usual business hours of the Community shall also be maintained by the Landlord, for which the Landlord may appoint a Facility Manager.

4.3. Representations and Warranties

The Landlord represents and warrants to the Tenant that:

(a) it is duly incorporated under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated;

(b) it has the power to enter into and to exercise its rights and to perform its obligations under this Lease;

(c) it has taken all necessary action to authorise the execution of and the performance of its obligations under this Lease;

(d) the obligations expressed to be assumed by it under this Lease are legal, valid, binding and enforceable;

(e) neither execution nor performance of this Lease will contravene any provision of:

(i) any existing law or regulation;

(ii) its memorandum or articles of association; or

(iii) any obligation (contractual or otherwise) which is binding upon it, or upon any of its assets;

(f) all applicable Consents, licences, approvals or authorisations of, exemptions by or registrations with or declarations by, any governmental or other authority required by it with respect to this Lease and the performance of its obligations under this Lease have been obtained or will be obtained or made, will be valid and subsisting and will not be contravened by the execution or performance of this Lease, as required pursuant to the Applicable Laws and/or pursuant to this Lease;

(g) it shall comply with VAT Law in timely manner in accordance with the Applicable Laws.

4.4. Landlord's Obligation(s)

The Landlord shall provide, as soon as practicable (and within fourteen (14) days in any case, subject to receipt of additional details, as may be reasonably requested by the Landlord), any no-objection letter or any other certificate(s) as may be reasonably requested by Tenant from the Landlord for submission to Relevant Authorities in order for the Tenant to obtain the required DED License (if pending) or renewal thereof during the Term in accordance with the Permitted Use, without any further obligation whatsoever on the Landlord towards any Party.

5. GENERAL

It is hereby agreed and declared as follows:

5.1. Car Parking

The Landlord shall dedicate Car Parking Spaces as defined in Particulars for the benefit of the Tenant during the Term. The Tenant shall ensure that its employees, visitors, and invitees park their respective motor vehicles only at the dedicated parking spaces allocated to the Tenant in the Community. The Landlord may change the dedicated parking spaces allotted to the Tenant from time to time by giving prior reasonable notice to the Tenant.

5.2. Property Manager

The Owner has appointed, or may appoint, a Property Manager for the management and supervision of the Building; and the Landlord has appointed, or may appoint, a property manager for the management and supervision of the Leased Premises.

5.3. Sale, Assignment of Lease and Mortgage

(i) The Landlord has been and shall hereafter continue to be entitled to sell, assign, mortgage and/or charge and/or create third party rights with respect to the Leased Premises and any units / premises / offices / areas etc. comprised therein. While effecting such disposition / alienation as aforesaid and as may be otherwise required by the Landlord, the Landlord shall ensure that the same is subject to the Tenant's right under this Lease and do not adversely affect the rights of the Tenant to utilize the Leased Premises for the Permitted Use during the Term. In the event of a sale / conveyance / assignment of lease of the Leased Premises and provided the Tenant has not been in default of the terms of this Lease, the Landlord shall ensure that the purchaser / assignee/ new Landlord thereof, as the case may be, shall execute a letter recognizing the Tenant as the Tenant of the Leased Premises and confirming and ratifying the terms and conditions of this Lease and that the Tenant shall continue to use and occupy the Leased Premises without interruption to the Tenant by the concerned party in accordance with this Lease.

(ii) In the event the Landlord seeks to securitize the Rent or any part thereof, the Tenant at the prior written request and direction of the Landlord shall, in substitution of its obligation to pay to the Landlord, pay such Rent or any part thereof to the assignee to whom such Rent or any part thereof is securitized. The Tenant undertakes to execute all necessary documents / writings, the assignee may require the Tenant to execute in respect thereof, provided such documents do not modify Tenant's rights and/or obligations hereunder.

5.4. Alterations, Upgrades, and Administrative Modifications

(i) The Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the Owner and/or Landlord may, at any time during the Term, carry out works, renovations, upgrades, maintenance, or alterations to the Building and/or the Leased Premises (including reconfiguration of floor plans, Common Areas, or re-designation and/or re-numbering of units, overhauling/replacement/repairs of the major equipment or any other Landlord's works), without compensation to the Tenant, subject to prior reasonable notice. Provided that (i) the physical size, location of the Leased Premises are not materially affected; (ii) adequate means of access to the Leased Premises being maintained and (iii) the Landlord shall endeavour (to the extent reasonably practicable) to limit the impact of the works on the Tenant's operations.

(ii) Subject to prior reasonable notice, the Tenant shall permit the Owner and/or the Landlord, its employees and its contractors reasonable access to the Leased Premises to facilitate such works. The Tenant shall not be entitled to any rent reduction, damages, or termination rights, provided such works do not interfere with the business of the Tenant or use (or create excessively burdensome conditions for the use) of the Leased Premises under this Lease.

5.5. Leased Premises becoming unfit for use

If during the Term, the whole or any part of the Leased Premises is destroyed or damaged by Force Majeure including fire, water, invasion or Act of God so as to render the Leased Premises substantially unfit or deprive the Tenant from the substantial use of the same, and so long such damage or destruction is not attributable to the Tenant, the Rent shall be suspended starting from the second Business Day following the whole or any part of the Leased Premises is destroyed or damaged until the Leased Premises shall have been rebuilt or reinstated or made fit by the Owner and/or the Landlord for the occupation and use of the Tenant, provided that the Landlord shall be under no obligation to restore and reinstate the Leased Premises, in which case the Landlord shall notify the Tenant of the same in writing within 3 (three) months of such damage and this Lease shall stand terminated on forthwith basis. Except as otherwise provided herein before, the Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant for any damage, loss or inconvenience suffered by the Tenant due to the destruction of or damage to the Building / Leased Premises or due to any delay in rebuilding, reconstructing or restoring the Building / Leased Premises or the Landlord's refusal to do so or for the termination of this Lease under this sub-clause.

It is hereby clarified that if on account of any directive or order of any Relevant Authority or government or court directing closure of establishments in the country, state, city or establishment where the Leased Premises are located, or any directive or order of a Relevant Authority or government or court restricting movement of manpower in the country, state, city or establishment where the Leased Premises are located, or any directive, the Tenant is unable to carry on business from the Leased Premises, and so long as such damage or destruction shall not be attributable to the Tenant's fault and provided the Tenant does not actually use the Leased Premises, the shall be suspended proportionately for the period during which the Tenant is unable to use the Leased Premises for its Permitted Use. If such restriction continues for a continuous period exceeding ninety (90) days, the Tenant shall be entitled to terminate this Lease by written notice, without penalty and without further liability save for amounts properly due and undisputed up to the termination date.

5.6. Forfeiture

The Landlord shall have the right to forfeit the Security Deposit in the event:

(a) the Rent or any part thereof or any other sums due and payable to the Landlord hereunder remain unpaid for Fifteen (15) days after the same becoming due (whether formally or legally demanded or not);

(b) the Tenant commits or permits a breach of any of the covenants, obligations and provisions of this Lease, or a violation of any rules or regulations as set out hereunder including but not limited to the Community Rules & Regulations and fails to remedy such breach within thirty (30) days from the written notice of such breach; or

(c) the Tenant goes into liquidation or is declared bankrupt or assigns for benefit or enters into an arrangement or composition with its creditors or stops payment of its debts; or

(d) the Tenant introduces any material change in the character of the Tenant's business, or use of the Leased Premises (including any discontinuation of any of the business or lines of business at the Leased Premises);

(e) on the occurrence of any one or more of such events, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease. The right to forfeit the Security Deposit shall be in addition to Landlord's right to collect from the Tenant any unpaid dues under this Lease as may be applicable, and without prejudice to any other action or remedy available to the Landlord, the Landlord shall have the right, forthwith and without the need to institute any legal action, to (a) terminate this Lease, (b) forfeit any and all deposits and other payments made by the Tenant hereunder and (c) re-enter the Leased Premises and re-possess the same as its property.

5.7. Right to Set-Off

The Landlord's right to recover and enforce the payment of any amounts due and owing by the Tenant to the Landlord under this Lease shall include the right to set-off any such amounts against any monies due from the Landlord to the Tenant.

5.8. Right to Relief

In the event of any breach by any party of any of the terms and conditions of this Lease, the other party shall have the right to seek specific performance, injunctive relief, declaratory relief or any other equitable remedy.

5.9. Entire Agreement

This Lease embodies the entire agreement of the Tenant and the Landlord and supersedes all negotiation, discussion, writings or previous contracts in respect of the Leased Premises. No course of dealings, undertaking, representation, inducement or terms of agreement between the Parties that is not expressly contained in the Lease shall be of any force or effect, nor will it supplement, explain or vary any of the terms and conditions of this Lease. This Lease may not be changed or modified, in whole or in part, in any manner other than by an instrument in writing duly signed by the Tenant and the Landlord.

5.10. Notices

Any notice, communication or demand to be given or made by or to the Landlord or the Tenant pursuant to this Lease shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by way of an electronic mail to the Party due to receive such notice, communication or demand at its address as set out in the Particulars (or such other address as either Party may advise in writing) or by way of an electronic mail. In the absence of evidence of receipt, any such notice, communication or demand shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered or left or pasted at the address set out in the Particulars (or such other address as either Party may have notified the other in writing) or sent by registered mail or an electronic mail.

5.11. Dispute Resolution and Governing Law

(i) This Lease shall be governed by and constructed in accordance with the laws of the Emirate of Dubai and the federal laws of the United Arab Emirates.

(ii) Any Dispute arising out of the formation, performance, interpretation, nullification, termination or invalidation of this Lease or arising therefrom or related thereto in any manner whatsoever shall be referred to and finally resolved by the Rental Disputes Settlement Centre in the Emirate of Dubai ("the Centre") as established by Dubai Decree No. 26 of 2013 and any amendment thereto. In the event that the Centre ceases to exist then any such disputes shall be referred to any competent substitute rental disputes centre/committee in the Emirate of Dubai, or else (if such substitute centre/committee does not exist) to the Dubai Courts. For the avoidance of doubt, the DIFC laws and the DIFC Courts are excluded and the DIFC Courts shall have no jurisdiction whatsoever.

(iii) Should a Dispute arise under this Lease, the Parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the terms of this Lease during the period of time the Dispute is being resolved and thereafter, should this Lease continue following resolution of the Dispute.

(iv) This Lease is subject to amendment if this becomes necessary as a result of Applicable Law or in any change in Applicable Law after the date of this Lease. Any such amendment shall be in the form of a written agreement signed by the Parties, however the Tenant hereby agrees to comply with any reasonable request of the Landlord to sign any such written amendment to the extent that the amendment becomes necessary as a result of Applicable Law.

(v) The Tenant agrees that if any provision of this Lease conflicts with Applicable Law, then if required by the Landlord the relevant provisions of this Lease shall be appropriately amended, replaced, repealed or varied by Applicable Law pursuant to this Clause, provided that the remaining terms and conditions in, this Lease that are in adherence, compliance or do not conflict with Applicable Law shall remain in force and shall be effective in so far as they do not conflict with any terms and conditions that are amended, replaced, repealed or varied by Applicable Law.

5.12. Confidentiality

The Tenant shall keep confidential all matters relating to this Lease and shall not make any disclosure and shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that those for whom it is responsible shall do the same except where disclosure is required by any Applicable Law or Relevant Authority or to the extent required to its accountants, auditors, investors, lenders and legal counsels.

5.13. Partial Invalidity / Severability

Any provision of this Lease which is prohibited, unenforceable or is declared or found to be illegal, unenforceable or void shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Lease or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision. If any such invalidity substantially affects or alters the commercial basis of this Lease, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to amend and modify the provisions and terms of this Lease as may be necessary or desirable in the circumstances to achieve as closely as possible, the same economic or commercial effect as the original provisions and terms of this Lease.

5.14. Registration of this Lease and Ejari contract

(i) The Landlord shall register this Lease in the relevant register (including with Ejari Dubai) at the land register maintained by the Dubai Land Department or at such other public register as may be required by Applicable Law.

(ii) The Tenant shall, on demand pay to the Landlord the Administrative Fees and execute and furnish such documents (including signed Ejari contract) as may be required by the Landlord.

(iii) The Landlord and Tenant shall abide by the terms of this Lease, in addition to those agreed, by way of Ejari contract. The terms and conditions of this Lease shall always form part of the Ejari contract, even if not separately reflected into the Ejari contract. The Tenant expressly waives its right to make any claim/counterclaim or challenge anywhere that terms and conditions of the Ejari Contract don't reflect the terms and conditions of this Lease and/or there is any discrepancy between the Ejari Contract and this Lease, this Lease shall prevail.

(iv) The Tenant agrees that it shall not register or record any short form or memorandum of this Lease without the consent of the Landlord.

6. TERMINATION

6.1 Notice of breach

If:

(a) The Rent or any part thereof or any other sum payable under this Lease is unpaid for Fifteen (15) days after becoming due and payable (whether such sum has been demanded or not or an invoice for the same is issued or not); or

(b) there is any breach by the Tenant of any of its obligations, covenants and conditions to be performed and observed by the Tenant under this Lease, a notice stipulating a period of thirty (30) days for cure of such breach shall be issued by Landlord to the Tenant and the Tenant fails to cure the breach to the satisfaction of the Landlord within such period; or

(c) the Tenant uses the Leased Premises or allows others to use it for any illegal purpose or for a purpose which breaches public order or morals; or

(d) the Tenant uses the Leased Premises for a purpose other than that Permitted Use or uses the Leased Premises in a manner that violates planning, construction, and use-of-land regulations or any other Applicable Law in force ;

(e) the DED License of the Tenant is absent within 25 (twenty-five) days and/or lapses, terminates or is revoked for any reason and the Tenant fails to procure a valid replacement in the same name within 25 (twenty-five) days; or

(f) the Leased Premises remain unoccupied or abandoned for a continuous period of Thirty (30) days or more or the Tenant is untraceable and the Landlord is satisfied in the circumstances that the Leased Premises have been abandoned; or

(g) in respect of the Tenant:

(i) it enters into dissolution or liquidation other than for the purposes of re- organisation whilst solvent;

(ii) it is dissolved;

(iii) it becomes bankrupt or is declared bankrupt or assigns for benefit or enters into an arrangement or composition with its creditors;

(iv) it is unable to pay its debts;

(v) it introduces any change in use of the Leased Premises, which contradicts to the Permitted Use;

(vi) a resolution is passed or any other step is taken by the Tenant or its directors for the appointment of an administrator, or an administrator is appointed whether in the UAE or elsewhere; or

(vii) a receiver (which expression shall without prejudice to the generality thereof include an administrative receiver) is appointed over all or any of the assets or of the income arising from all or any of the assets of the Tenant whether in the UAE or elsewhere, the Landlord shall be entitled to terminate this Lease with immediate effect by written notice to the Tenant without the need for a court order.

6.2 Consequences of Termination

On termination of this Lease in accordance with this Clause or otherwise, the Landlord shall:

(a) not be under any obligation in respect of this Lease;

(b) shall retain and appropriate the Security Deposit;

(c) be entitled to enter and take possession of the Leased Premises; and

(d) be entitled to lease the Leased Premises to a third party or otherwise deal with the Leased Premises, and such termination shall be without prejudice to any claim that the Landlord may have against the Tenant for any breach of any terms or conditions of this Lease or liabilities accrued or due on, or prior to, or after such termination.

6.3 Abandonment

If the Tenant vacates or abandons the Leased Premises, then the Landlord may, without such conduct constituting re-entry, termination, forfeiture or acceptance of a surrender of the lease under this Lease:

(a) accept the keys to the Leased Premises;

(b) renovate, restore and clean the Leased Premises;

(c) change the locks and secure the Leased Premises; and

(d) permit prospective Tenants to inspect the Leased Premises.

6.4 Termination under Applicable Law

The rights of the Landlord to terminate this Lease shall be in addition to the rights (including termination of this Lease and/or eviction of the Tenant) available to the Landlord under Applicable Law.

6.5 Damages following termination by Landlord

If this Lease is terminated by the Landlord then:

(a) any sum paid in advance to the Landlord by the Tenant shall not be liable to be refunded by the Landlord and shall belong solely to the Landlord; and

(b) the Landlord shall be entitled to recover from the Tenant by way of damages, the loss of any sums due to the Landlord for the remainder of the Term.

It is acknowledged and agreed by the Tenant that the liquidated damages payable as a debt on and against the execution of this Lease (which liability is hereby admitted and agreed by the Tenant to be reasonable having regard to all facts and circumstances, including the quantum and rate of the amounts) are: (a) a genuine pre-estimate of the losses additional to those set out in subclause (i) and (ii) above that the Landlord would suffer in the event of termination of this Lease; (ii) reasonable and proportionate to protect the Landlord's legitimate interests; and (iii) not a penalty.

6.6 Termination by Tenant

If in respect of the Landlord:

(a) it enters into dissolution or liquidation other than for the purposes of re-organisation whilst solvent;

(b) it is dissolved;

(c) it becomes bankrupt or is declared bankrupt or assigns for benefit or enters into an arrangement or composition with its creditors;

(d) it is unable to pay its debts;

(e) a resolution is passed or any other step is taken by the Tenant or its directors for the appointment of an administrator, or an administrator is appointed whether in the UAE or elsewhere; or

(f) a receiver (which expression shall without prejudice to the generality thereof include an administrative receiver) is appointed over all or any of the assets or of the income arising from all or any of the assets of the Tenant whether in the UAE or elsewhere;

the Tenant shall be entitled to terminate this Lease with immediate effect by written notice to the Landlord without the need for a court order.

If the Building, the Leased Premises or the essential means of access to them are damaged so that substantially the whole of the Leased Premises cannot be occupied for the Permitted Use without substantial work being undertaken under clause 5.5; and so long as such damage or destruction shall not be attributable to the Tenant, this Lease may be terminated by the Tenant serving written notice to the Landlord following one (1) month from the date of the destruction or damage to the Building and/or the Leased Premises.

6.7 Damages following termination by Tenant

In case of termination of this Lease Agreement, other than pursuant to clause 6.6 of this Lease Agreement, the Tenant shall be liable pay the Rent for the unexpired period of the Term, payable as a debt on and against the execution of this Lease (which liability is hereby admitted and agreed by the Tenant to be reasonable having regard to all facts and circumstances, including the quantum and rate of the amounts) as and by way of reasonable, genuine and agreed pre-estimate of damages/losses that will be caused to the Landlord, and it is agreed that such amounts are liquidated damages and not penalty.

6.8 Lien

The Landlord shall be entitled to exercise a lien over all the property of the Tenant in or about the Leased Premises as security for the payment of sums overdue and payable by the Tenant to the Landlord under this Lease on termination of this Lease or if the Tenant vacates or abandons the Leased Premises without paying all sums due and payable for the remainder of the Term.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Parties have hereunto set and subscribed to their respective hands the day, month and year first hereinabove written.

Schedule 1

EASEMENTS, RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES GRANTED

The following easements, rights and privileges are hereby granted for the benefit of the Tenant:

(a) the right and liberty in connection with the use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises for the Tenant, its customers, contractors, suppliers, employees and invitees in common with the Landlord and with the tenants of the other premises in the Building and all others having the same right to use the Common Facilities subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

(b) the right of passage of gas, electricity, water, soil, drainage, air smoke, or other effluvia to and from the Leased Premises through the Service Media passing along or through or over, upon or under the Building.

(c) the right of support, shelter and protection for the Leased Premises from adjoining or neighboring premises and all other parts of any building erected or to be erected of, which the Leased Premises may form part, as are at present adjoining the Leased Premises.

(d) the right and liberty for the Tenant, its employees and contractors upon reasonable notice to enter upon other premises comprised in the Building so far as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of repairing or maintaining the Leased Premises or otherwise performing the Tenant's obligations hereunder, the Tenant giving prior notice to the Landlord of its intention to exercise such right and in the exercise of such rights doing as little change as possible to the Building or other premises forming part of the Building and forthwith making good any damage done.

Schedule 1A
RESERVATIONS

The following rights and easements are excepted and reserved out of the Leased Premises to the Owner, the Landlord, tenants or occupiers of the Building or any adjoining property and their respective employees and agents:

(a) The right at reasonable times to enter upon the Leased Premises as often as may be necessary for all the purposes for which the Tenant covenants in this Lease to permit entry and for all purposes in connection with the carrying out of the services and for the purposes of complying with any requirements of any Relevant Authority.

(b) The right to use and to construct, inspect, maintain, repair, divert, and otherwise alter, stop up and relay and to make connections to any Service Media in, on or under the Leased Premises at any time for the benefit of any other part of the Building or any adjacent or neighbouring land.

(c) The right to erect and maintain scaffolding on or against any part of the Building, notwithstanding that such scaffolding may temporarily restrict access to or the passage of light and air to the Leased Premises and enjoyment of the Leased Premises.

(d) The right to alter access to the Building or the Leased Premises for pedestrians or vehicles.

(e) All rights of light, air and other easements and rights enjoyed by the Leased Premises from or over any other part or parts of the Building or any adjacent or neighbouring land.

(f) The right for one or more members of any security staff employed by the Owner or the Landlord or its agents at any time or times to enter the Leased Premises if it shall be considered necessary or desirable so to do in connection with the security of the Building.

(g) The right at reasonable times on reasonable prior notice in the last six (6) months of the Term to enter upon the Leased Premises for the purposes of re-letting and marketing the Leased Premises.

(h) The right at any time to build or rebuild, alter or execute any works in, on, under or to the Building or any adjoining or neighbouring property or buildings in such a manner as the person exercising the right shall think fit notwithstanding the fact that the same may obstruct, affect or interfere with the amenity of the Leased Premises or the passage of light and air to the Leased Premises.

(i) The right to use the name of the Tenant and the trading names and logos used by the Tenant in connection with the Leased Premises for marketing the Building, including (without limitation) such use in brochures, reports, other promotional and advertising materials and the internet.

(j) The right of Owner to decorate, install any logo or signage or any other advertisement or to allow any other third party to install any logo or signage or any other advertisement on the interior or exterior parts of the Building, including rooftop and the Building Façade.

(k) The right of support and protection from the Leased Premises for the remainder of the Building.
